This is an e-mail I opened this morning.....

I just received additional news from a different person regarding Andrew, sonare serving the Lord in Soroti, Uganda. I've heard different things as to his diagnosis such as malaria or cerebral meningitis or both but regardless, he is one very sick little boy.

Please forgive if something I pass on to you is inaccurate but I feel a little like I'm playing whisper down the lane since I have no first hand knowledge of this family or situation. Thankfully our Lord knows everything about this little boy and is the one in control.

This morning (Sunday) he was airlifted to International Hospital in Kampala, Uganda. While in Soroti he received a blood transfusion and was unresponsive. They have him sedated (till Tues. at least) to ease the seizures and on a quinine drip. Pray specifically that there will be no permanent brain damage and no AIDS later on from the blood transfusion.

Thanks,.....

I hope no one minds that I cut out their last names..I didn't feel comfortable putting their last name on the web. I also posted this on another homeschool website so there are many who are praying.

Thanks for the prayers.

Margarete

Here is the latest e-mail I received:

Wonderful news I just received this morning at the IBFNA conference from a pastor friend who is good friends with Andrew's grandfather. He received an email from the letting everyone know that Monday night at 6:00 p.m. Andrew woke up and told everyone that he wanted to go home. The doctors are amazed with his good condition. There is no brain damage and he is doing well. He had his first light meal of yogurt Tuesday. They anticipate the doctors releasing him from the hospital sometime this weekend. He has some bedsores which one of the doctors is treating him for. He has a lot of stiffness in his muscles which will require some therapy and he will naturally need to grow strong again but his condition is amazing for what he has been through the past couple of weeks.

His parents are so very thankful for all our prayers and ask that we continue to pray for full recovery. What a wonderful testimony opportunity this situation is to the doctors and hospital staff in Africa that we serve a powerful and mighty God.

Thanks again for your prayers,

June

THIS IS SUCH WONDERFUL NEWS! ISN'T GOD A WONDERFUL GOD! YES HE IS!

THANK YOU TO ALL WHO HAVE PRAYED!
