the countdown is on. Still trying to settle on a name. not many serious contrax, only b. hicks. I'd have to say I'm a little nervous about delivery, don't know what to expect 7+ years after my last baby. Biggest hurdle - these darn nesting instincts but I'm too exhausted to do the housework I want/need to do, which leaves me feeling frustrated and unprepared. We are praying for a safe and blessed delivery and healthy baby!

One of the main things causing my exhaustion is that this little one's happy dance hour is between 2-4 a.m.! that coupled with me not being able to get a comfy sleep position. So, hello sleep deprivation. Oh well, it'll be any day now I guess since my former pattern has been about 5 days early! :) Will post announcement on fb shortly after! :d :roll: 8o

Sooooooooo exciting!!!! I well remember those last days (weeks) before delivery when it was impossible to get into a comfortable position and I just had to keep telling myself "it is worth it all!"

My last delivery was such a blessing --so short and all went well, and I had a little over ten years between #6 and #7. I'll pray for a blessed delivery for you and continuing to trust God with you for happy, healthy baby and mama! :)

I will look forward to your announcement!

With love and hugs,
Tamara
