Shame on me <G>!

Our adorable little Arissa Renee arrived on 9/2. This was another "surprise" to everyone but dr. & I c-section delivery LOL (everyone knew it would be a c-section delivery but we never set a date..just played it day by day since mid-Aug.). She arrived screaming her lungs out (quite similar to King Alex) and weighed in at 6'4 oz....largest baby since Nicole.

We're both doing very well and Arissa is fast on her way to be totally spoiled by all of us.

I am now 44 & 2 mths & Everyone is praying that God blesses us again..soon (gosh, I need to lose some lbs!!!)
